

The Washington Little Theater presents

As a special event during The Battle of Kettle Creek Revolutionary Days

The American Revolution 1763-1789

written by Ron Fink & John Heath

A musical story told by Betsy Ross...

...and her band of patriotic puppets!

February 14 & 15, 2026

Saturday performances are at 1:00 P.M. & 4:00 P.M., Sunday is at 3 P.M.

Bolton Lunceford Playhouse
313 North Alexander Ave.
Washington, GA

This is a FREE event!
Tickets are needed to secure seating
Get your FREE tickets online at WashingtonLittleTheater.org

Regular ticket terms & conditions apply.

Find us on Facebook at:
facebook.com/WashingtonLittleTheater

Connect online or via e-mail:
WashingtonLittleTheater.org
WashingtonLittleTheater@gmail.com

Produced by special arrangement with Bad Wolf Press (BadWolfPress.com)

Synopsis

Betsy Ross – a bit prone to exaggeration – tells her grandkids how the colonies became a nation. It's a difficult time: taxes are high, Sam Adams hates tea, and Paul Revere keeps forgetting his horse! The colonies don't even like each other that much and John Hancock is spending way too much time practicing his signature. But it's a glorious story nevertheless, and will help enliven an exciting part of our history!

Cast of Characters

Betsy Ross Amy Potter

Children Josephine Filipiak, Ansley Hopkins, Tahlia Lamont, Brooklyn Lawson, Addie Osborne, Abigail Sowers

Bert Liam Lamont Alice Kristina Karamihalis

Puppeteers & Live Voice-Actors

Ed Brown, Lisa Fisher, Kristina Karamilhalis,
Liam Lamont, Desiree Lopez, & Tara Townsend

Recorded Voice-Actors

Tasha Gravel, Michael Horgan, Jason LeBlanc, Jim Nuss, Rob Parker, Garston Townsend, & Skeet Willingham

Special Thanks

Many have contributed to the success of this production. For all your time, talent, and generosity, we extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation:

Georgia Council for the Arts

Washington-Wilkes Historical Foundation

Washington Little Theater Board of Directors

All our season sponsors and season ticket holders

Little River Chapter Georgia Society Sons of the American Revolution

There is no intermission in today's show. We encourage you to get refreshments in the lobby before or after.

Production Crew

Director Gail Duggan
Assistant Director Ginny King
Puppetry Director Tara Townsend
Production Advisor Jason LeBlanc
Sound & Lights Manager Ricky LeBlanc
Assistant Liam Lamont
Set & Props Stagehand Ginny King
Set & Props Painting & Construction Erin Labor, Travis Labor, Jason LeBlanc, Ricky LeBlanc, Jim Nuss, & Chad Travous

Puppet Dresser

Desiree Lopez & Rosebud Simpson

Puppet Sewing Team

Peggy Anderson, Kathy Boardman, Georgia Cowan, Sara Dunavan, Frances Dyson, Nona Jane Harrison, Ginny King, Lisa Luken, Margaret Norris, Heather Riley, & Shay Wease

What's Next On Our Stage?

Charlie & the Chocolate Factory – May 1–10

Step into a world of pure imagination! Roald Dahl's beloved story bursts onto our stage in a dazzling, larger-than-life musical filled with wonder, comedy, and heart. When Willy Wonka opens the gates to his mysterious factory, Charlie Bucket and four other lucky golden ticket winners embark on an unforgettable adventure filled with chocolate waterfalls, nutty squirrels, the great glass elevator, and, of course, the mischievous Oompa-Loompas. Directed by Joey Pruitt, with musical direction by Abbie Pruitt.

Tickets on sale soon!

Summer Drama Camp – June 1–14

Open to children entering 4th grade through graduation who are interested in all aspects of theater production from backstage to frontstage leading roles. Over the course of two weeks, children will learn a variety of performance techniques in preparation for week two's rehearsal and performance of an age-appropriate play starring all drama camp participants. Register online at our website.

Registration opens soon!

Thank you to our annual sponsor!

Washington-Wilkes Historical Foundation

Protecting Wilkes County History Since 1968.

706-678-2105

HistoryOfWilkes.com

HistoricalWW@gmail.com

308 East Robert Toombs Ave
Washington, GA 30673

2026 Season Tickets

Purchase season tickets and save up to 40% compared to regular at-door prices! Purchase online at WashingtonLittleTheater.org or see one of our volunteers before February 15th to secure this special price!

Package Level	Cost	Tickets
Individual Early Bird	$40	4 Tickets
Couple Early Bird	$80	8 Tickets
Patron Early Bird	$120	12 Tickets